Terms for the HERALD are as follows:
For one year.....$1.00
Six months......50
Three months......30
PROCES:
Office.....144
Residence.....143
JACKSON, MO., OCT. 24, 1901.

CZOLGOSZ will be electrocuted next Monday.

On November 22 and 23 the republican editors of Missouri will meet in convention at St. Joseph.

In answer to a little editorial in the HERALD the Daily Republican of the Cape says: "The republican party of this county today stands as firm as the rock of Gibraltar." We are more than glad to hear this for it was not always thus. Two years ago the republicans of this county ingloriously beat one of the truest and cleanest republicans in the county. My dear brothers, if you mean what you say, that you are for the best interest of the republican party, and not for any faction, here is our hand, and time will prove whether your actions belie your words. We hope to see you stand firm.

Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God to take from our midst our beloved and esteemed comrade, Frederick Oehl, who departed this life September 29, 1901, at the age of 65 years, and who in 1861 left his home, friends and relatives in defense of his country and flag.

Resolved, That in the death of Comrade Frederick Oehl Capt. James Johnson Post, No. 350, G. A. R., lost their quartermaster and a good and faithful comrade; his family a good and faithful husband and father, the community a good citizen, neighbor and friend, and the church to which he belonged a good christian.

Resolved, That in memory of Comrade Oehl the charter of Capt. James Johnson Post, No. 350, be draped in mourning for thirty days in respect of the deceased comrade.

Resolved, That a copy be presented to the bereaved family of the deceased comrade, a copy be spread upon the adjacent book and a copy be sent to the JACKSON HERALD and Volksfreund for publication.

"I had long suffered from indigestion," writes G. A. LeDeis, Cedar City, Mo. "Like others I tried many preparations but never found anything that did me good until I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure.
